Description of Change: JEDEC, the industry standards body for memory, has revised the Printed Circuit Board (PCB) design for Raw Card C. To comply with this change, Kingston's engineers have qualified this new revision and permitted its use on this Server Premier part. Kingston will be phasing out the old BOM featuring Raw Card C2. This BOM will continue to be available for 45 days while our PCB inventory transitions to the new BOM featuring Raw Card C3.

* Note, an increase in demand for the old BOM may cause the EOL date to be pulled in. Please contact your Kingston representative if you require assistance with this transition.
